"Why," ind she, "I had no idea I was of sufficient importance to interview."

After being assured by the reporter that she had many friends in this city, her home, and other places where she was known, who would be g'ad to hear about her success in her musical studies, Mrs. Rammelsberg very reluctantly submitted to an interview. Though she has gained somewhat in embor point, Mrs. Rammelsberg is the same lustrous-way beauty who left. Whesling some verse CLOAKS Though she has gained somewhat in em bos-point, Mrs. Rammeisberg is the sme lustrous-eyed beauty who left Wheeling some years ago as bride. She is cordial in her gresting to old friends, and seems pleased to see them. Her foreign residence and associations have not dwarfed her love for home and the grand and glorious country of the United States. There are exceptions, of course—Wheel-ing's dirty streets and smoky atmosphere. GLAD TO SEECLD FRIENDS.

It was merely a svere hoarsen's, which, unfortunately, was mininterpreted. It was over in a few days. You know Marie Stone? Yes. "In Paris, first."

"Not at all. In Italy. It gives one a pre-eminence to make a debut in that country not attained by any other method."

"Then you intend to adopt the stage as a profession?"

"Most decidedly. I was offered a fine engagement in Italy, to begin in September, but the terns did not suit me. I shalt engage a manager, instead of binding myself to a certain contract—just like Patt does. I will sing in opera in Paris, St. Peteraburg, Vienna, and London—perhaps three years—and come home—that is to America, when I hope to please them." THE MUSIC OF THE TWO COUNTRIES.

THE MUSIC OF THE TWO COUNTRIES.

"You have been ttudying under quite a famous instructress, haven't you?"

"Yes, indeed. Michame Marchesi is a very accomplished woman, well verred in lore, languages and music. When you come into her presence there is something that I catnot explain that makes you feel you are beholding a superior women. She is the most thorough voice leacher in Europe. We know little about music in this country. I thought I knew something about it, but I soon found out my musicks."

"What is the difference?"

"It can hardly be explained, there are so many points, orchestra, method and manner. Then, besides, you know, Europe is an older continent and they have practiced music much longer than we have. For all tra', for the youth of the United States, we are improving in culture and taste. The presentation of Operas here cannot to compared to these in Europe."

"But that will be a long while, won't it?"

"About three years. But then, you know I will have the rough edges rubbed off and will appear to beter advantage and, I hope, to the better satisfaction of my friends. Now there is Mile. Nevada, an American girl, who has taken Paris by storm, and who is a particular friend of mine. She is dying to get to America. We have often talked of home—the French in Paris have no word that corresponds with our word 'home', in fact, they have no homes at all, mare'y apartments—and she has longed to appear before an American andience. She told me that if after all her successes in Europe she came to American dide. She is thoroughly American." "You still love your country, don't you?" "Yee, indeed. The Bellaire Building Association on Monrants. Their recommendation was adopted.

The Bellaire Building Association on Monday evening elected the following directors, all but the last three being re-slected; Mahlon Craft, R. A. McGregor, John Kelly, Miller Booth, J. W. Goulson, Cyru H. Strahl, Thos. O'Malley, James Taylor and Wm. Thomas. The stock of this Association hay increased in value during the year considerably more than the amount paid in, Testerday a gentleman who remembers. than the amount paid in,

Yesterday a gentleman who remembers Bellairs when the roads were just growing into streets was looking at the great washed out hollow where his lang piles for the O. V. railroad are being driven. He recalled the fact that at one time the whole of the ground that has been washed away might have been saved by the expenditure of one dollar; but the Central Ohio company and to see to the matter.

In laying the new rising water main across Noble street, the main pipe leading to Gravel Hill had to be sprung a little, and this cathed the leak that has torn up that corner and blockeded it for teams. Lest night a valve was put in that let the water supply of the Fifth ward be kept up while the main at that point is being relaid with iron. Yesterday one of S. Baer & Sons' large wagons, heavily loaded, went through at the point where the water mains are being repaired and had to be unloaded into another wagon.

I am receiving my fall stock of women's misses and childrens shoes and mens incoan hand-saved ahoes in all the different styles to which I invite an inspection. I have added several new lines to those I have been keeping heretofore, making a complete assortment of fine and medium goods.
